

Constitution- James Madison

Word Bank

Virginia plan	10	secretary	1836	delegates	Bill of Rights	4th
father	29	Virginia	36	Thomas Jefferson	85

James Madison is known as the _____ of the constitution, he wrote a plan for the new government called the _____. Many of his ideas were applied to the government, when Madison spoke about his plans, the _____ listened. He is credited for _____ of the Federal papers. Later, he served as a _____ congressman. The first _____ amendments to the _____ were proposed by Madison. At the age of _____ he did the most work for the constitution. Later in his life he served as a _____ of the state under _____. Afterwards Madison was elected the _____ president of the United States. He lived longer than any of the signers of the constitution and died at the age of _____ in the year _____.

